

NKJ/NordCAW symposium

Program: Animal welfare, antibiotic use and resistance

24th of March 2020, Audhumbla, VHC, Swedish University of Agriculture Sciences

10.30 – 10.50	Registration and coffee
10.50 – 11.00	Welcome and introduction	Lotta Berg
11.00 – 11.20	Use of antibiotics for animals – why and why not?	Christina Greko, National Veterinary Institute, Sweden
11.20 – 11.40	ESBL in chickens – spread in populations and between countries	Oskar Nilsson, National Veterinary Institute, Sweden
11.40 – 12.00	MRSA in pig production	Anders Rhod Larsen, Statens Serum Institut, Denmark
12.00 – 12.30	New EU legislation on medication for animal use – what are the implications for the NordCAW members and EU
12.30 – 13.30	LUNCH
13.30 – 14.00	Raising pigs - health, welfare and antibiotics	Per Wallgren, National Veterinary Institute, Sweden
14.00 – 14.15	Grazing and it's connection to animal health, welfare and economics	Karin Alvåsen, Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences
14.15 – 14.45	Dairy Cows – health, welfare and antibiotics	Ylva Persson, National Veterinary Institute, Sweden
14.45 – 15.15	Consumer attitudes towards production diseases in intensive animal production, animal welfare and use of antibiotics	Jarko Niemi, National Resources Institute Finland
15.15 – 15.45	FIKA
15.45 – 16.05	Handling of MRSA-pigs in Norway	Anne Margrete Urdahl, Norwegian Veterinary Institute
16.05 – 16.25	Raising pigs without antibiotics	Poul Baekbo, SEGES; Danish Agriculture & Food Council

16.25 – 16.45	Naracin free broiler production	Magne Kaldhusdal, Norwegian Veterinary Institute
16.45 – 17.05	The Swedish model	Gunnela Ståhle, Vi Konsumenter
17.05 – 17.25	The Danish model	Elisabeth Okholm, The Danish Veterinary and Food Administration
17.25 -17.30	Closing	Lotta Berg